Structobond and RFID Labels

STRUCTOBOND® – the permanent ones

Sticks. Holds. Stays. The innovative labels are based on new patented technology for the permanent identification of tools, containers, and bins. It includes an epoxy resin adhesive that has been applied in web form, enclosing the data carrier and fixing it securely. This makes STRUCTOBOND® an attractive alternative to mechanical or laser engraving. This is primarily used for pharmaceutical and medical technology, but also for industrial applications.

Industrial Labels, Tags, label printers and tools

Our labels and tags for industrial identification

GRAPHIPLAST® Tags – Extremely tear-resistant and economical Robust, Heat Resistant, Oil repellent. The robust plastic labels are an S+P Samson classic. These weather-resistant data carriers for the labeling of materials up to 580 °C were developed for particularly rough ambient conditions and are easy to print with conventional IT printing systems. Fully customized to your requirements and available as tags, adhesive labels or combination labels.

RFID – The Electronic Ones

Modern. Intelligent. Functional.

In today's digital world, RFID solutions are part of modern identification systems. S+P Samson offers special labels for metallic environments and high-temperature applications which enable an automated identification. This ensures reliable material flow organization using permanent verification. Radio-controlled and in superior S+P Samson quality.
